
3) CONGRESSIONAL HEARINGS

Senate stands adjourned sine die, to reconvene at Noon on January 20, 2004.

House stands adjourned sine die, to reconvene at Noon on January 20, 2004.

NORTH KOREA NUCLEAR DEVELOPMENTS

1/20 – 219 Hart Senate Office Building, 10am. Senate Foreign Relations Committee Full committee meets to receive a briefing on North Korean nuclear developments and the Six-Power Talks. Witnesses: James Kelly, assistant secretary for East Asian and Pacific Affairs, State Department; Siegfried Hecker, senior fellow, Los Alamos National Laboratory; Keith Luse, professional staff member, Senate Foreign Relations Committee; Frank Jannuzi, professional staff member, Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Contact: 224-4651, <http://foreign.senate.gov/hearings/2004/hrg040120a.html>.

MAD COW DISEASE RESPONSE

1/21 – 1300 Longworth Bldg, 2pm. House Agriculture Committee Full committee hearing on the Agriculture Department's bovine spongiform encephalopathy (Mad Cow Disease) response. Contact: 225-2171 <http://agriculture.house.gov/schedule.htm>.

OVERSEAS JOB LOSS

1/21 – 2360 Rayburn Bldg, 10am. House Small Business Committee Full committee hearing on "Exploring the American Worker's Role in the Global Marketplace." Witnesses: Allan Kennedy, writer/researcher and management consultant, Boston, Mass.; Constance Bagley, associate professor of business administration, Harvard University; Laure Bassi, CEO/managing partner, McBassi & Co. Contact: 225-5821 <http://www.house.gov/smbiz/schedule/index.html>.