About JIAP

JIAP is a Washington-based nonprofit, membership research center studying Japanese and Northeast Asian science, economic, security and public policies and the region's policy relationship with the United States.

Established in 1991, the JIAP is a trusted member of the U.S. policy community interested in Japan and Asia. JIAP's members are leading scholars, researchers, policy officials, and journalists working on issues affecting the Northeast Asian region. Through a range of programs and publications, JIAP educates its members, policymakers, and the public to use knowledge of Japan and Asia to increase national strategic competitiveness and security.
